Inventory (American English) or stock (British English) is the goods and materials that a business holds for the ultimate goal of resale (or repair).. Inventory management is a discipline primarily about specifying the shape and placement of stocked goods. It is required at different locations within a facility or within many locations of a supply network to precede the regular and planned ...

Box and Cox (1964) developed the transformation. Estimation of any Box-Cox parameters is by maximum likelihood. Box and Cox (1964) offered an example in which the data had the form of survival times but the underlying biological structure was of hazard rates, and the transformation identified this.
