Jackson made a career out of the white reclamation of spirituals. Mentioned earlier was his White Spirituals in the Southern Uplands, though the misleadingly titled White and Negro Spirituals: their Life Span and Kinship (1943) is notable for its treatment of Negro music only as "variants" on white originals.

James White: Slanderer, Spiritual Harlot, Hypocrite This issue is dedicated to exposing James White, founder of Alpha and Omega Ministries. Why focus on one man for an entire issue? It is because his views embody and epitomize the views of most who are in the camp of conservative Calvinism, so to expose him is to expose all those who believe like him.

The primary function of the spirituals was as communal songs sung in a religious gathering, performed in a call-response pattern reminiscent of West African traditional religions. African American spirituals may also have served as socio-political protests veiled as assimilation to the white American culture.
